Thankful

This week we posted a question on our Facebook page asking what oral health success stories our supporters are thankful for. We received a couple of great answers. Read those answers and reply to this message to tell us what you are thankful for!

"The Advanced Education in General Dentistry program at WSU. It is just beginning but so many people were a part of making the dream come true."

"All of the good dentists, dental hygienists and dental staff that work to screen Kansas kids in schools, provide school based services, treat Medicaid kids, and volunteer their talents to help the underserved - I'm thankful for everyone's contribution to making Kansas a healthier place! Happy Thanksgiving!"

organization, hopes, dreams, achievements, mission, values and ideas, run and come to life.

The many things Oral Health Kansas is thankful for this Thanksgiving season:

- All dentists and hygienists and their office teams
- Wise leadership from the OHK Board of Directors
- Our many funders
- Those who work to better the lives of children with special health care needs
- Those who work to better the lives of those with disabilities
- Citizens of Kansas who volunteer their time and services for all
- Those who work to better the lives of elders
- Our parent educators
- The many safety net clinics across the state and those who keep them running

And many, many more!

The Oral Health Kansas office will be closed Thursday and Friday November 25-26 in observance of Thanksgiving.

Happy Thanksgiving
from Tanya, Marcia & Julie
