A fond farewell at Oral Health Kansas

This week Oral Health Kansas is bidding a very fond farewell to our Office and Communications Manager Sarah Franklin. Sarah is leaving to join the University of Nebraska's Medical School's physician's assistant program this fall. She has been with us for the past year, and in that time, she has helped us improve everything from our social media and Weekly Wednesday Update to our series of "Tips and Tricks" and sugary drink display.

Sarah has a talent for making people feel at ease and greeting each challenge with a smile. She very quickly became an integral part of Oral Health Kansas and has shown us all how to juggle many responsibilities and make it all look easy.

The Oral Health Kansas staff, board and volunteers will miss Sarah. We wish her the best and look forward to the amazing career she has ahead. Without a doubt, she will continue to improve lives and spread joy to those around her.

and Convention Center

Hosted by the Kansas Association of Community Action Programs, the Kansas Conference on Poverty will explore the consequences of continuing poverty and - more importantly - will focus on its solutions. Click here for more information!
